Pool. They invite you to join them, whenever 100 or more is too hot for you. If you wonder what his "cool" is, ask the man who has one.

107With FML

The first half of this Central Texas newsweek has been incredible.

The second half still awaits us.

Cameron had a brief jailbreak, first since 1965, and different this time in that the breakers did not go through the wall, the ceiling or the windows.

Then Miss Donna DuBois, Cameron student at the University of Texas, escaped death by inches numerous times on the South Mall 10 feet from the Tower. (See lead story, Page 1, this edition)

Bullets splattered themselves around Donna for some 30 minutes or longer while the wounded and dead literally fell around her.

That is truly incredible.

107-107-107

107 was in Dallas the day President John Kennedy was shot in November, 1963, awaiting his arrival in the press area of the huge Merchandise Mart.

Perhaps that is why the slaughter at the University captured

RAIN TEMPERSSIZZLING HEAT

Sometimes 2 inch of rain is hardly noticed. That was the amount recorded early Wednesday and it brought smiles for gardeners and farmers after 23 days without rain.

Rainfall during July was a meager 2.13.

Temperatures remained hot with two days of plus 100 degree readings.

Official city temperature recorded for the week were:

	HI	LO
July 27	99	70
July 28	99	72
July 29	109	80
July 30	100	74
July 31	101	75
August 1	101	76
August 2	98	76

even greater interest here.

It was coincidence that two Cameron people would witness the modern mass murder record.

They will agree that confusion follows hysteria, and a grim, sinking sense of futility by exhaustion, whether witness, target or not.

Man will search his conscience an eternity longer before he can comprehend how the subconscious wells up from a primeval that society seeks to tame or, at least, to contain.

When "it" snaps, the animal kingdom, tuned by man's ingenuity, prevails. A deadly hunter, haunted by a mystical complex of human pressures, caused himself to be shot down like a mad dog Monday.

Season Tickets On Sale At Yoe High

Yoe High Principal Alvis Fuquay has announced that Cameron Yoe-men season football tickets for the pressbox section are now on sale at his office in the high school.

NO NEW QUESTIONS...Election Due August 27

The Cameron Herald has not received any additional questions this week concerning Urban Renewal planning for Cameron although the referendum vote on the proposal will be held August 27.

A resume of Urban Renewal information presented by the nine-member City Planning Commission appointed to study renewal needs includes the following points:

1. The August 27 election is a referendum to determine the desire for city improvements. Citizens will have an opportunity to vote for - or against the city entering into a Urban renewal program.

2. Cost of the program is not yet known, but when it is voters will have an opportunity to vote for or against the program. The cost will be determined after engineers and planners are given the okay to outline a program.

3. If voters endorse the Urban Renewal program the city council will appoint an urban renewal board and administrator to direct the program.

4. First part of the program will probably be the downtown area embracing a four block by 5 block area. This area would be bound on the east by Fannin St., on the south by the railroad, and Tyson st., on the west by Crockett st. on the north by Hwy. 77. It is possible downtown block just west of the courthouse could be demolished. The people in this block, relocated in other areas, and some type of park or parking area built on this block.

5. Merchants in the area who of necessity would have to move, would receive help in relocating by the urban renewal board. This is part of the responsibility of the board so as not to work a hardship on any individual.

6. There are outright grants by the Government to pay for relocating, also loans on a very low interest rate available to the merchants and landlords.

7. Buildings in the general area would be brought up to an approved standard, and money for this improvement would be available on long term, low interest rate from the Federal Government.

8. The building and property could be purchased at a fair price by the urban renewal board, the building repaired, renovated and sold to an individual, making it possible to relocate the merchant.

POPULAR STORY DONNA DUBOIS RECALLS...
HOUR DIVIDED; Shots Inches By NEW TIME SET

Popularity of the summer story hour program at the Cameron Public Library has created a need for dividing the program into two sessions. New hours were also announced for the story hour. They will meet from 10 to 11 a.m. Thursday and Friday.

Children with last names starting with A-L are asked to attend on Thursday and children with last names starting with M-Z will come on Friday. Mrs. Don Humble, library board member and director for the summer program, said the alphabetical dividing was not mandatory and children could attend on the opposite day if it was more convenient.

Principal reason for dividing the groups was to allow more space and materials for the activity time. Mrs. Humble said as many as 80 children had attended the Thursday morning program.

Mrs. F. J. Burkes will be in charge of the story hour for 6 to 10 year olds Thursday and Friday and will show slides of Viet Nam during the activity period both days.

Mrs. Tommy Chamberlain will be in charge of the 3-5 year old story hour group on Thursday and Mrs. Richard Earle Burke will have the age on Friday.

New Police Chief Assumes Duties

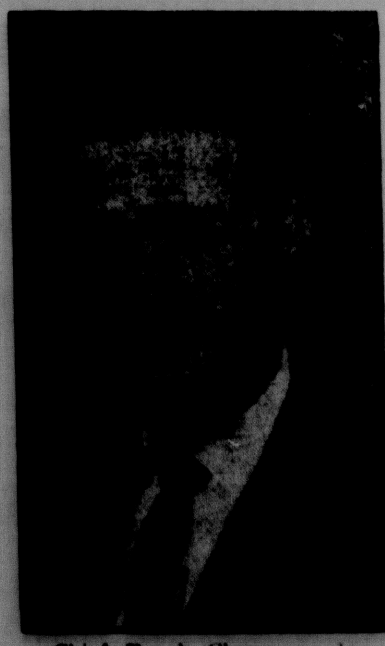

Cameron's new chief of police knows his work and convinces you in conversation that he intends to run the city police department in a way that will help curb the national crime trend.

Frank Chapman Jr. is 40 and has a background of 19 years in police work. He is quick to express concern that our national crime incidence rate increased 13 percent in 1964 and continued to rise in 1965.

He was police chief at Hamlin for three years and then moved to Hale County in 1964 where he was chief deputy sheriff with a staff of 11 deputies. He also attended the Texas Department of Public Safety school on Criminal Investigation held in Austin last March. He said he felt the Cameron job was a challenge and looked forward to working with the people here.

Chapman will head a 4-man department in Cameron which includes patrolman Warren McCall, relief patrolman Vernie Miller, dispatchers Dero Jenkins and Pat McCall. Chapman said he and patrolman McCall would each work 12 hour patrols with Miller filling in on their day off.

Chapman, his wife and family are living at 407 N. Washington. Their children include Dennis Ray 17, Linda, 15, Keith, 9, and Douglas, 4.

Jail Escapees Free 4 Hours

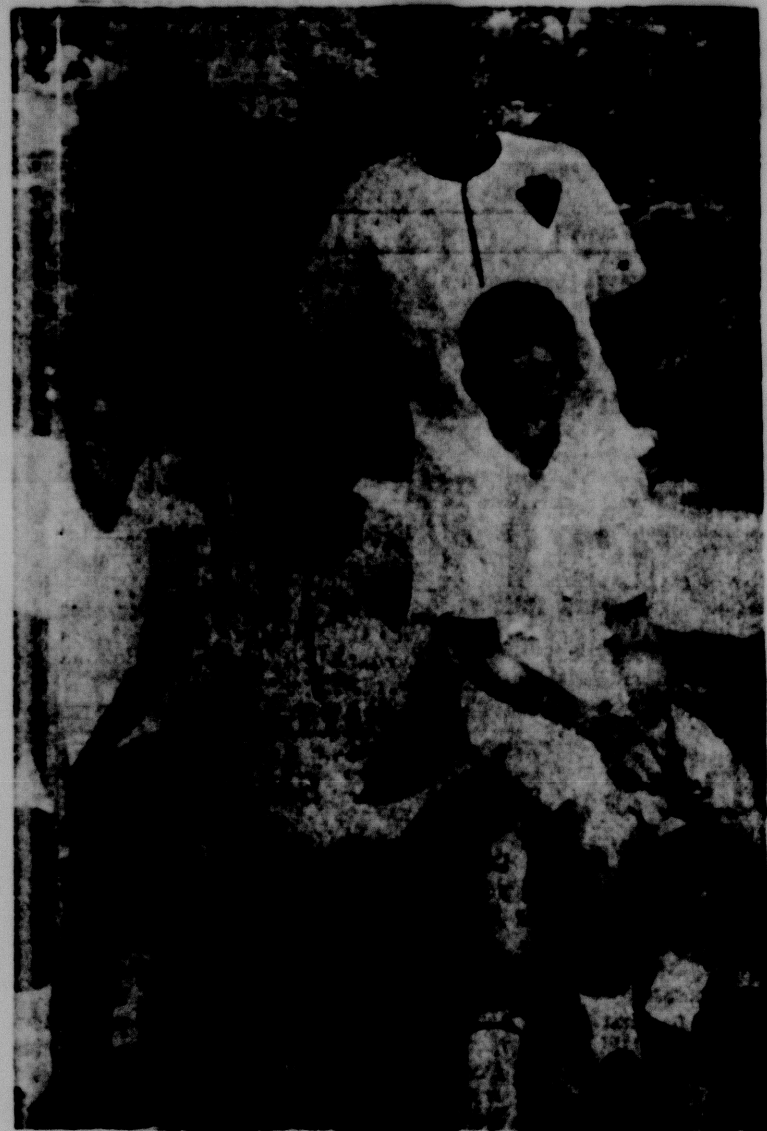

Sheriff's Deputy Blackie Morgan and Highway Patrolmen Leroy Broadus and Tom Kirchoff recaptured two escapees from Milam County jail Wednesday 4 hours after their escape.

Sheriff Carl Black said the men, Donald Ray Armstrong, 22, and Johnny Edward Holsonback, 18, overpowered a county jail cook as she brought their breakfast about 8 a.m. The deputies picked them up at 11:50 a.m. beside the Santa Fe tracks near Hoyt station.

Armstrong was being held for Kansas authorities who said he had escaped from the Kansas penitentiary and had stolen two cars in his flight to Cameron. He had lived in Cameron before moving to Kansas as a child.

Holsonback, who said his home was near Atlanta, Georgia, was AWOL from Ft. Hood, and was being held in Milam County jail on charges of check forgery.

Both remain in the Milam jail.

Congressman Poage Reports

Sometimes we find ourselves engaged in great activity but with few results. This past week has been one of those occasions. The Agriculture Committee has spent a great deal of time on the proposed legislation to provide a plan whereby the rural electric and rural telephone systems can contribute to their own financial needs and ultimately avoid the necessity of the government making them 2 percent loans.

Naturally many of the Members of Congress would like to avoid taking any position on this issue. On yesterday the Full Committee referred the whole matter to the Subcommittee on Conservation and Credit, of which I am Chairman. We are going to try to give everyone an opportunity to point out how this legislation might hurt or help them, and to that end we have invited the President of the Edison Institute (the private power companies) and the President of the Electric Cooperatives (NRECA). We are not, however, going to spend the rest of the summer on dilatory tactics. We met this morning and will meet again Monday morning.

Yesterday I participated in the successful effort to send an Interior bill back to the Conference Committee. Our purpose was to have them eliminate provisions which they had inserted to extend the activities of the Bureau of Reclamation to all of the 50 states. At present the Bureau's jurisdiction is confined to the 17 western states. We felt that there was no good purpose to be served in setting up a duplicate system for small watersheds, as the bill did. As I see it, what we most need now is for the Bureau of the Budget to submit the 50 odd watershed reports that they are now holding up and to release enough of the money heretofore appropriated to carry on the work of this program which has proved so successful.

Mold Vegetables To The Season

Cooks, present vegetables with verve! Take a cue, for instance, from the temperature. When the weather's warm, serve vegetables cold in a buttermilk-gelatin mold delicately tinted green. Add a touch of the season, as did the Borden Kitchen, by topping with a red tomato rose. Complement with a variety of cold meat slices, tomato wedges, and cottage cheese.

Buttermilk-Vegetable Mold

(Makes a one-quart mold OR 6 or 8 servings)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 (8-oz.) packages mixed vegetable flavored gelatine | 1 cup diced celery |
| 4-1/2 cups boiling water | 1 cup grated cucumber (about one cucumber) |
| 4 teaspoons vinegar | 6-8 cucumber slices, optional |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | Stuffed olive slices, optional |
| 2 cups Borden's Buttermilk | large or small curd creamed cottage cheese |
| 1 cup grated carrots (about 2 carrots) | |

Dissolve gelatine in boiling water; add vinegar, salt, and buttermilk. Chill about 1/2 hour until thickened, but not set. Fold in carrots, celery, and cucumber. Arrange olive and cucumber slices as other garnishes on the bottom of a 1-quart ring mold. Pour in thickened gelatine mixture. Chill until firm; about 2 hours. Unmold. If desired, garnish with additional olive slices and fill center with large or small curd cottage cheese.

County Agent's Notes

Shortcourse On Cattle Valuable

The cattle reproduction shortcourse held on July 25 & 26 was designed to help cattle people take a closer look at their cattle operations.

The agents estimates that one third of the cattle operations in Milam County are losing money. The chief reason for this condition varies with situations, some keep an animal because they prefer the color, other keep cattle just because they are cattle. Then there are some who really don't know why they have cattle. Most of our bull buyers evaluation of an animal is the purchase price.

Some type of performance records on the bulls, cows and their calves is the only way to accurately evaluate cow-calf operations. For example, the calving interval of cows should be watched closely - we have witnessed dairy operations run into difficulties as a result of not getting the cows bred on time.

Actually, 1 of the 11 bulls that were fertility tested at the short course proved to be inadequate breeders. Causes listed by Larry Miller, cattle reproduction specialist from A&M were: Age of the animal, diseases, nutrition, and just poor semen produced by the animal.

Those cattlemen who participated in the short course valued the information received as a basic need of the County.

'Red In Unreason' . . .

One thing derives from the incredible slaughter in Austin though in the darkness of the carnage, it is insignificant . . .

Texas needs a strict licensing and control of purchase of guns.

The assassin of 15 and wounder of 31 bought one in his arsenal of guns the morning of the sniping debacle. Like Oswald, assassin of President Kennedy in Dallas, he bought the gun across the counter.

What tick that shattered his reason will never be ascertained. So say investigators of the unprecedented murders.

By usual standards, Charles J. Whitman was a good man and a bright student. Somehow, he went methodically berserk.

Had he not already owned several other weapons, and had he really needed the shotgun he bought Monday morning, it could have made a difference.

But it is too late. And the nation once again must wonder what peculiar stricture twists minds in Texas to such unconscionable deeds.

It could have happened somewhere else, but it didn't. And whatever can be done, by law, to reduce the chances of such a bloodletting, twice the deaths of the Speck case in Chicago, should be done.

We may never find any other reason, if ever, for the dead and wounded around the Texas Tower that "glows orange in victory", but drips red in the unreason of a demented man.

What Others Say . . . Tyranny of the statistic

We are frankly repelled by the proposal to feed to a centralized computer in Washington all the information which 20 government agencies and departments have collected about American citizens.

For one thing, some aspects of a man's life are no business of government. And for another, in this age of the statistic, we must guard most carefully against the temptation to reduce men to a bundle of statistics.

For one or another reason, government agencies increasingly gather information about the personal lives of Americans. This information exists in the individual's dossiers in various government departments. The proposal by the Bureau of the Budget to create a National Data Center would make much more widely available any personal information the various agencies have managed to collect.

Whatever advantages officials may see in such a centralized "dossier bank," the dangers inherent in it are obvious. It would constitute a monstrous invasion of privacy and a threat to the liberties of every American.

One way that the government goes about its task of information gathering is to approach acquaintances of the one under investigation. It is not difficult for a malicious or mistaken impression of another to slip into one's dossier. And once there, however false or misleading, it is the way the computer describes him to all who may have the occasion and opportunity to consult it.

Thus any prejudicial information can be used against the individual without his knowledge or consent. He doesn't know what is in his dossier and so has no opportunity to rebut it. He is, in effect, condemned without due process of law. This situation exists now. The proposed move would merely compound the dangers.

Also repugnant is the fact that dossier information seldom if ever changes, while the individual it purports to describe may have, in the meantime, undergone a radical transformation of character. As Vance Packard put it, "The Christian notion of the possibility of redemption is incomprehensible to the computer."

Still another objection is the conceivable misuse of this information on a grand scale. We don't envision "1984" as the American future, but we do believe that bureaucratic pressure for a National Data Center, unless resisted, could take us a big step down that road.

A Big Hand . . .

The Reporter gives a hand this week to the City of Cameron, its officials, civic organizations and business men who in recent months have been showing signs of great civic responsibility.

Cameron's airport project is being brought to a successful conclusion. Cameron's Industrial Foundation has passed the half-way mark on its $100,000 goal, and the Cameron city council last week called a special election for August 27 when Cameron citizens will vote on an Urban Renewal program.

Cameron's civic leaders are thinking in the right directions these days and their efforts cannot help but react to the good of our neighboring city across Little River.

Dateline Austin . . .

Drivers Count Down Launched

By Vern Sanford
AUSTIN

How you drive that automobile during the next 12 months will determine what you pay for car insurance a year from now.

Traffic violations, as well as accidents, will appear on your experience record and will count against you.

New plan designed by the State Board of Insurance will hit where it hurts the most—the purse.

Or, conversely, if you care to look at it that way, it will lighten the load on those who are penalized by higher rates because of the carelessness of others. And that's the way it really is, since some kind of increase is necessary.

Penalty points now are being assessed motorists for accidents and major violations—including speeding.

One penalty point will mean a 15 per cent hike, two points 35 per cent, three points 60 per cent and four or more points 90 per cent.

Major violations—like driving while intoxicated, negligent homicide, hit and run or felony driving offenses—will cost drivers three points.

Two points will be assessed for driving while a license is suspended or for violations resulting in suspension.

One point will be charged for accidents where there is injury or death—or property damage over $50—and for speeding. Speeding points are not counted until after one or two "free convictions" in the preceding year or three years.

After 1969, penalties will be based on driving records over a 36-month period.

Twelve exceptions to the "point" rule are listed, however, and one of them includes accidents in which the driver is not at fault.

Unlike the old retroactive, statewide plan of 1960-62 which created so much controversy, the current plan is based on experience in 26 separate rating territories and considers no offenses prior to August 1.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Gov. John Connally has named former Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepherd of Odessa as chairman of the new State Fine Arts Commission. He selected as additional members Tom Lea of El Paso, Ralph McCullough of Houston, Paul N. Howell of San Antonio, Edward L. Melin of Amarillo and Dewey C. Bradford of Austin.

Connally picked Tom McCrummen Jr. of Austin to succeed Maurice R. Bullock of Fort Stockton on the State Securities Board.

Robert A. Westbrook of Elgin was named to the Governor's Committee on Aging and Robert W. Olson of Dallas to the State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

Vernon McDaniel of Austin, Henry H. Dewar of San Antonio, and State Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan were appointed to the Southern Regional Education Board of Control.

Stanley Banks Sr. of San Antonio and Walter Long of Austin were reappointed to the State Library and Historical Commission.

Gilbert L. Herrera of Corpus Christi is the new director of Operation SER, a project to help Latin American citizens find and train for jobs.

COURTS SPEAK

State Supreme Court upheld the attorney general in refusing to approve $4,700,000 in the Brazos River Authority revenue bond issue.

Supreme Court justice, holding in favor of a Hopkins County widow's contest of an insurance policy cancellation on her late husband, disagreed over seriousness of agina pectoris heart disease. Majority concluded one who has it can still be considered in reasonably good health.

City of Dallas was entitled to a temporary injunction to block showing of the movie "Viva Maria" by high court said.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Texas must go on daylight saving time next April unless the legislature specifically moves to exempt the state from the new federal law, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr ruled.

In other opinions, Carr held that: Corporations providing radio-telephone service are subject to gross receipts tax.

A county may employ a justice of the peace to interview landowners in connection with acquisition of road right of way.

Land used by Radio Church of God for religious worship and that properly used in the interest of Ambassador College and the Imperial School, both of Upshur County, are exempt from property taxes.

Harrison County's game law setting November 15-30 as hunting season for buck deer is in effect. Water Rights Commission Decides Texas Water Rights Commission held feasible to 11.5 mile, $10,900,000 extension of the Texas City-La Marque seawall in the Jones Bay area.

Commission later gave Texarkana exclusive authority to construct for 120,000-acre-feet of water from Lake Texarkana. Water Development Board was given authority to participate in negotiations between city and U. S. Corps of Engineers. Water becomes available by raising lake gates.

Diplomatic Pouch

WASHINGTON DC. The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State.

I wish to know the exact price of building the Panama Canal. Please rush.

ABR.
Boston, Mass.

Dear A.:

The construction of the Canal cost $396,650,000, according to the Report on United States Relations with Panama issued by the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, 86th Congress, second session (Washington, 1960). The Department of State has no figures of its own to offer since the construction of the Canal was the responsibility of other agencies of the United States Government.

Will the military and economic aid that the United States is now giving South Vietnam be repayable to this country?

AMR.
Mattituck, N. Y.

Dear Mr. R.:

Because of the heavy demands the wartime situation places upon the resources of the Vietnamese economy, the majority of current aid to Vietnam does not require repayment in the usual sense. Just as in the case of Korea during and immediately following the conflict there, the difficulties of fighting the communists insurgents have so reduced the Vietnamese earnings of dollars and other foreign exchange earning potential that we could give them almost no help if we expected repayment in dollars. Once reconstruction is well underway at the end of hostilities, we expect that the Vietnamese will also develop a capacity to begin paying for aid in foreign exchange on a loan basis just as the Koreans are now doing.

However, the Vietnamese do in one way make payment for a great majority of our aid. For example, aid commodities sent to Vietnam under the U. S. Commercial Import Program are paid for by the Vietnamese private importers in local currency, and these local currency amounts are deposited to the account of the U. S. Government. This Vietnamese currency is then turned over to the Government of Vietnam to be used in support of programs mutually agreed upon by the U. S. and Vietnamese Governments. The majority of the U. S. surplus agricultural products exported to Vietnam under the Food for Peace program are similarly paid for in local currency. Together these two programs represent about 70 percent of our total non-military assistance to Vietnam.

Moreover, to establish the principle of aid repayment, certain aid has been given on a loan basis, bearing interest at higher rates if repaid in local currency than if repaid in dollars. These U. S. loans since the mid-1950's total approximately $92 million and center on such development projects as the Vietnamese railroad, improvement of municipal water supply, and modernization of the electric power and telecommunications system.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

As I understand the present boom times, nearly everybody who wants to work is working and a lot of people who don't are, but still shortages crop up. For example, I read in a newspaper yesterday afternoon which a neighbor left on his tractor seat to keep the sun off while he went to the house for a drink of water and the wind blew off, that President Johnson is having a hard time finding enough experts on foreign affairs to fill some jobs now open on his staff.

I do not understand this. Clearly he's not looking in the right place. If he will come out to this area, I can show him dozens of experts on foreign affairs, in any direction he wants to go.

I don't mean one-sided experts. We've got experts on every side of any question about any country, whether we've heard of it before or not, the same as the U. S. Senate. You don't have to be able to pronounce a country's name to know what we ought to do about it, or what the Administration ought to stop doing about it.

Studying the country you're hiring out as an expert on doesn't mean anything. There are men in Washington who have spent years studying China, they can read and write the language and pronounce the names, and half of them say China will attack us if we keep bombing Hanoi, and the other half says she won't. You can get exactly the same vote out here, where most of our information is limited to what we think up on our own. As I found out long ago, never call on more than one expert for advice on one problem. If you get two, you will wind up with opposite advice and be about where you were before you started.

However, if President Johnson hasn't filled those jobs for foreign affairs experts yet, he can find plenty around here, although actually he can find just as many right there around Washington who are fully as capable as we are.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SYMBOL OF SAFETY

You never mistake the meaning of a Church spire.

Even to those who are cold to the ideals for which the Church stands, that finger of faith always points to something that is comforting, reassuring, safe.

The very presence of a Church, whether in a crowded city street or on a quiet country road, is a benediction to all, including those who are not conscious of worship.

Such an influence, with what it means to those who open their hearts to truth, is worthy of a second thought. It merits acceptance as a refuge. It commands confidence as a port in time of storm.

The Church deserves your support — your membership — because it affords real protection for the family whose welfare it is your duty to defend and whose proper upbringing is your solemn obligation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church.

They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Everybody has spells of "the lows" from time to time. Maybe your diet could be part of the problem.

First, see your physician. He's your best source of health wisdom. He may recommend a change in your eating habits, perhaps more exercise, maybe he will suggest vitamins to help you lift your nutritional level.

And when he does make his diagnosis—follow his advice. Bring us his prescription; we'll help you do the rest.

Be honest with yourself: When was the last time you had a check-up? After all, it's your health . . . and we know of nothing we care more about.

TO THE MEMORY
OF
MRS. TOM ORMON

Aunt Tiny was born in Kentucky ninety two years ago. She was a young girl, when her parents moved to Cameron. They came partly by train and by covered wagon.

Her father was A. S. Ruby, whose name appears on the cornerstone of the Court House. He was one of the commissioners at the time of its erection. She often spoke of how she used to watch the workmen saw the stones, which were hauled in by mule and ox-drawn wagons. Her recollections of the colorful era of her childhood days in Cameron remained very clear in her mind and dear to her heart.
Hers was a full unselfish life, a Christian lady, devoted to her church and loved ones. Her countless friends will mourn the passing of a remarkable woman.

To her cherished memory, may I say, "God rest her beautiful soul."

NG Convoys Roll
10 Million Miles
Returning Home

Trucks of the 49th Armored Division traveled more than 16 million miles last weekend on their way home.

The figure — 16,370,000 miles — comes from Maj. Stanley Freese of Dallas, the division transportation officer. He has been in the 49th for 19 years and has been planning its summertime moves for 10 years.

Returning to Cameron after basic training at Ft. Hood were Edward Dohnalik, Louis J. Donalik, Larry A. Jackson, Martin J. Jistel, Ronald E. Kostroan, and Donald R. Pimpier.

For safety's sake, each convoy pulls off the road for a rest halt 10 minutes of each hour, and drivers are rotated periodically.

"We go to great lengths to space these convoys out for the convenience of civilian drivers," Maj. Freese said. "Any convoys using the same route out of here are scheduled at last an hour apart to cut down on traffic density."

"Within a convoy, trucks stay 100 yards apart while on the road. That's sufficient space for civilian cars to move in and out safely."

And each of our drivers has instructions to help civilian drivers pass and to obey all traffic laws. Convoys have no special right-of-way privileges unless they have a police escort," the major commented.

Convoy commanders send a representative ahead to each town through which the unit will pass to coordinate the move with police, according to Maj. Freese. "We work especially closely with the Waco Police Department because we will have hundreds of trucks going through there early Sunday morning," he said.

The long convoys travel 30 miles each hour, including the rest halt.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

A Quiz For Ship Travellers

Planning an ocean cruise? Don't be a land lubber on the sea — the reverse of a fish out of water! Try this quiz.

1. How do you know when a ship is about to leave port?
2. When on shipboard, how do you refer to the front and rear sections of a ship?
3. What are the sides of a vessel called? What colored lights designate each?
4. What are the mariner's correct terms for: floor, walls, stairways, ladders, rooms, or hall of a ship?
5. How should you refer to ladders or stairs used to convey passengers to and from the ship?
6. On most passenger liners, where is the brig?
7. You will likely hear someone speak about "Charlie Nobel." Who or what are they talking about?
8. When is a ship on "high sea?"
9. Can you name the Seven Seas?
10. What is the Sargasso Sea? Why are some mariners fearful of it?
11. What is the relationship between a nautical mile and a linear mile?
12. What is the Spanish Main?
13. Why is it believed unlucky for a shark to follow a ship for 24 hours?
14. What do sailors mean when they speak of "windward" and "leeward?"
15. When "tonnage" is mentioned to describe the size of a ship, what is meant?
16. What do sailors mean when they refer to a "trick at the wheel?"
17. What is meant by the phrase "ship's pool?"
18. Who is or was Davy Jones?
19. What is the function of a staff captain on a liner?
20. What is "Mare Clausum?"

ANSWERS:

1. When a ship is about to leave harbor, a blue flag with a white center is hoisted. This is called the "Blue Peter," a corruption of the French verb partir, meaning to leave.
2. The front of a ship is the "bow" or "prow." Anyone going in that direction is said to be going "up forward." The rear of a ship is the "stern" and a person going in that direction is said to be going "aft."
3. If you stand facing the bow of a ship, the right-hand side is called "starboard" and is identified with a green light. The left side is "port" and is identified by a red light. The same designations are used with aircraft.
4. Ship floors are "decks"; walls, "bulkheads"; stairways and corridors, "companionways"; rooms for sleeping, "cabins" or "staterooms"; public rooms, "salons." The kitchen is the "galley."
5. Ladders and stairs leading to and from the ship are "gangways."
6. The brig or ship's jail is often built in the dummy smoke stack used on many liners for appearance only.
7. A "Charlie Nobel" is ship's slang for a stovepipe. No one knows where the word originated.
8. The "high seas" is much like a highway across land and belongs to all ships. It is the sea or ocean lying beyond the territorial bounds of any nation.
9. The Seven Seas: the North and South Atlantic, the North and South Pacific, the Indian, the Arctic and the Antarctic Oceans.
10. The Sargasso Sea is an area of water in the Atlantic Ocean north of the West Indies where there is little or no current. Sailing ships were often becalmed there for months, sometimes until all water and food were exhausted. There is a great deal of seaweed and gulf weeds floating on the surface which can be a hazard for even modern ships.
11. A linear mile is 5,280 feet while a nautical is 6,080 feet.
12. The Spanish Main refers loosely to the Caribbean Sea. Originally it probably covered the north coast of South America and the east coast of Central America. This was the territory held by the Spanish during the early days.
13. Many seafaring men believe that if a shark follows a ship for a prolonged period it means death aboard. The shark is waiting for the body to be cast overboard.
14. Windward is the direction from which the wind blows. Leeward is the direction to which the wind blows.
15. Tonnage usually means "gross tonnage." A gross ton is 100 feet of enclosed space aboard ship. The two largest ships are the Queen Elizabeth which is 83,000 tons and the Queen Mary, 81,000 tons.
16. A "trick at the wheel" usually means a two or four hour shift steering the ship at the wheel.
17. The "ship's pool" is not a swimming pool although many ships have swimming accommodations. The ship's pool is a lottery, usually conducted by the chief deck steward, who sells chances on the day's ship run or the distance a ship covers each day. The passenger who guesses closest to the day's nautical miles wins the pool.
18. Davy Jones is a legendary character representing the sea. The name probably comes from Biblical Jonah who was said to have been swallowed by a whale.
19. The staff captain aids the captain in the supervision of the ship's personnel and in his non-navigational duties. On shipboard the word of the captain is law.
20. A Mare Clausum is a sea closed by a nation which controls its entrances and exits. An example is the Black Sea which is controlled by the Soviet Union.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1

proposing an Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas by adding thereto a new Section 12, authorizing the Legislature to provide by law for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of Airport Authorities composed of one or more counties, with power to issue general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, or both of them, for the purchase, acquisition by the exercise of the power of eminent domain or otherwise, construction, reconstruction, repair or renovation of any airport or airports, landing fields and runways, airport buildings, hangars, facilities, equipment, fixtures, and any and all property, real or personal, necessary to operate, equip and maintain an airport, shall provide for the option by the governing body of the city or cities whose airport facilities are served by certified airlines and whose facilities or some interest therein, is proposed to be or has been acquired by the Authority, to either appoint or elect a Board of Directors of said Authority; if the Directors are appointed such appointment shall be made by the County Commissioners Court after consultation with and consent of the governing body or bodies of such city or cities, and if the Board of Directors is elected they shall be elected by the qualified taxing voters of the county which chooses to elect the Directors to represent that county, such Directors shall serve without compensation for a term fixed by the Legislature not to exceed six (6) years, and shall be selected on the basis of the proportionate population of each county based upon the last preceding Federal Census, and shall be a resident or residents of such county; provide that no county shall have less than one (1) member on the Board of Directors; provide for the holding of an election in each county proposed for the creation of an Authority to be called by the County Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts, as the case may be, upon petition of five per cent (5%) of the qualified taxing voters within the county or counties, said elections to be held on the same day if more than one county is included, provided that no more than one (1) such election may be called in a county until after the expiration of one (1) year; in the event such an election has failed, and thereafter only upon a petition of ten per cent (10%) of the qualified taxing voters being presented to the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts of the county or counties in which such an election has failed, and in the event that two or more counties vote on the proposition of the creation of an Authority therein, the proposition shall not be deemed to carry unless the majority of the qualified taxing voters in each county voting thereon vote in favor thereof; provided, however, that, if the Authority may be created and be composed of the county or counties that vote in favor of its creation if separate propositions are submitted to the voters of each county so that they may vote for a two or more county Authority or a single county Authority; provide for the appointment by the Board of Directors of an Assessor and Collector of Taxes in the Authority, whether constituted of one or more counties, whose duty shall be to assess all taxable property, both real and personal, and collect the taxes thereon, based upon the tax rolls approved by the Board of Directors, the tax to be levied not to exceed Seventy-Five Cents (75c) per One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed value of the property, provided, however, that the property of state regulated common carriers required by law to pay a tax upon intangible assets shall not be subject to taxation by the Authority, said taxable property shall be assessed on a valuation not to exceed the market value and shall be equal and uniform throughout the Authority as is otherwise provided by the Constitution; the Legislature shall authorize the purchase or acquisition by the Authority of any existing airport facility publicly owned and financed and served by certified airlines, in fee or of any interest therein, or to enter into any lease agreement thereon, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreeable to the Authority and the owner of such facilities, or authorize the acquisition of same through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, and in the event of such acquisition, if there are any general obligation bonds that the owner of the publicly owned airport facility has outstanding, the same shall be fully assumed by the Authority and discharge said outstanding indebtedness; and likewise any city or owner that has outstanding revenue bonds where the revenues of the airport have been pledged or said bonds constitute a lien against the airport facilities, the Authority shall assume and discharge all the obligations of the city under the ordinances and bond indentures under which said revenue bonds have been issued and sold. Any city which owns airport facilities not serving certified airlines which are not purchased or acquired or taken over as herein provided by such Authority, shall have the power to operate the same under the existing laws or as the same may hereafter be amended.

Any such Authority when created may be granted the power and authority to promulgate, adopt and enforce appropriate zoning regulations to protect the airport from hazards and obstructions which would interfere with the use of the airport and its facilities for landing and take-off; an additional county or counties may be added to an existing Authority if a petition of five per cent (5%) of the qualified taxing voters is filed with and an election is called by the Commissioners Court of the county or counties seeking admission to an Authority and the vote is favorable, then admission may be granted to such county or counties by the Board of Directors of the then existing Authority upon such terms and conditions as they may agree upon and evidenced by a resolution approved by two-thirds (2/3rds) of the then existing Board of Directors, provided, however, the county or counties that may be so added to the then existing Authority shall be given representation on the Board of Directors by adding additional directors in proportion to their population according to the last preceding Federal Census.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 79 proposing an amendment to Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding Section 1-d to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding Section 1-d to read as follows:

"Section 1-d. (a) All land owned by natural persons which is designated for agricultural use in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

(b) The owner wishes to qualify his land under provisions of this Section as designated for agricultural use, he shall file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land is devoted.

(c) Upon receipt of the sworn statement in writing the local tax assessor shall determine whether or not such land qualifies for the designation of agricultural use as defined herein and in the event it so qualifies he shall designate such land as being for agricultural use and assess the land accordingly.

(d) Such local tax assessor may inspect the land and require such evidence of use and source of income as may be necessary or useful in determining whether or not the agricultural use provision of this article applies.

(e) No land may qualify for the designation provided for in this Act unless for at least three (3) successive years immediately preceding the assessment date the land has been devoted exclusively for agricultural use, or unless the land has been continuously developed for agriculture during such time.

(f) Each year during which the land is designated for agricultural use, the local tax assessor shall note on his records the valuation which would have been made had the land not qualified for such designation under this Section. If designated land is subsequently diverted to a purpose other than that of agricultural use, or is sold, the land shall be subject to an additional tax. The additional tax shall equal the difference between taxes paid or payable, hereunder, and the amount of tax payable for the preceding three years had the land been otherwise assessed. Until paid, there shall be a lien for additional taxes and interest on land assessed under the provisions of this Section.

(g) The valuation and assessment of any minerals or subsurface rights to minerals shall not come within the provisions of this Section.
